

TAYLOR KNIBB

TAYLOR KNIBB

D.O.B.: 02.14.98

HOMETOWN: WASHINGTON D.C.

Two time 70.3 World Champion, Tokyo 2020 Olympic Silver medalist and 2021 World Triathlon Series runner-up, Taylor Knibb first competed in triathlon in 2009. By 2016, Knibb entered her first WTS race and by 2017, became the youngest female to stand atop the WTS podium.

A two time Ironman 70.3 World Champion (2022, 2023)

Knibb is known for her powerhouse cycling.

According to

AT A GLANCE

2x

70.3 World
Champion

1x

U23 World
Champion

2x

Junior World
Champion

2nd

Olympic Mixed
Team Relay

'20

Olympic Team

'24

Olympic Team

TRIATHLON 220,

“ USA’s Taylor Knibb delivered perhaps the most dominating solo bike breakaway witnessed on the World Triathlon Championship Series to win the final event in Edmonton and further enhance her rapidly growing reputation in the sport. ”

Knibb excels on both the short course and long course triathlon racing. Knibb has qualified for the 2024 Olympics in Paris and is focused on achieving a gold medal.

A 2020 graduate of Cornell University,

KNIBB SAYS,

I'm a person beyond sport. One race doesn't define me as a person. Regardless of the result, I am still learning. I'm 26 and don't have everything figured out but I am open to change and continuing to learn and grow.

PARTNER WITH TAYLOR

- ▶ Camps (Virtual and In-Person)
- ▶ Social Activations
- ▶ Corporate Speaking
- ▶ Product Endorsements
- ▶ Content

Please direct all media and marketing inquiries to: Patrick Lemieux | Patrick@Lemieux.Group

SOCIAL STATS

41.4k
Followers

@TAYLORKNIBB